

LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY

Whereas Client has retained Patents2Market, LLC to provide certain product development and marketing services on his or her behalf, client hereby agrees and understands that this Limited Power of Attorney is necessary for the purposes of commerce.

Therefore, Client hereby grants Patents2Market, LLC certain specific and limited rights to sign documents on their behalf. The documents are limited to:

- (1) Documents required by certain corporate or business entity policies that directly relate to product submission information for the purposes of potentially entering into a manufacturing license or any other type of license agreement.
- (2) Non-Disclosure Agreements whereby generally one of both of the parties wishes to disclose certain non-public information for the purposes of potentially entering into a manufacturing license or any other type of license agreement.

Such Limited Power of Attorney may be revoked by Client at anytime and shall become effective thirty (30) calendar days after providing written notice to Patents2Market, LLC. All prior Non-Disclosure Agreements shall continue to be enforceable for the period of time specified in each.
